Sydney and beyond.

Headlining the night will be Melbourne-based electro-acoustic performer Joe Talia, best known for his work with reel tape machines and analogue devices. Talia will be performing his first-ever solo Sydney show alongside Tasmanian-born electronic musician Matthew Brown and Sydney duo Clocks & Clouds (Kraig Grady and Terumi Narushima), who make acoustic music featuring vibraphone and pump organ.

Also performing will be Laura Altman, Romy Caen, Prue Fuller, Mel Herbert and Andrew Fedorovitch - the Sydney quintet best known for their improv work.

Wrap your ears around this eclectic night of music on Friday November 6 at 107 Projects in Redfern. Tickets will be $10 on the door.
